Trailerite®

BOAT COVERS

... The One for the Road

All Trailerite® boat covers are specially designed and built to withstand the rigors of the road. It takes an exceptional cover to endure the punishment of highway trailering. Survivability on the road goes way beyond providing quality materials and workmanship. Most covers fail because of an improper fit and the inability to be properly tied down.

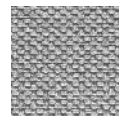

Loose fitting covers literally shake themselves to pieces. In the end, the mark of a true quality cover depends on the cover's fit and its ability to be tied down extra tight. Trailerite® boat covers score high marks across the board in quality, fit, design and trailerability. Choose a Taylor★Made® Trailerite® boat cover because it is "The One for the Road!"
